Wilderness Fly Fishing

Fly-fishing on Montana's wilderness headwaters is a remarkable experience. The fish are abundant and not nearly as "educated" on the finer points of food selection. As such, it makes for a wonderful opportunity to fish wild waters all day and rarely see anyone outside of your group. We provide detailed fishing gear recommendations for those interested in this amazing fishing trip experience.

Summer Packtrip Schedule

The summer trips schedule is included under separate attachment. It is subject to change as the trips fill, so please confirm as soon as possible that the trip you are interested in is still available.
